

Cash Tells The Tale

I have opened a brand new grocery store in the Stowers building at 120 North Second avenue. The stock is all new and fresh throughout.

My experience in the grocery business teaches me that I can sell goods much cheaper—and still retain a margin—by buying and selling for CASH ONLY. I will keep no books and charge no goods, but I will save you some money on your cash purchases here.

NO INDICTMENT IN AMSEL CASE

The grand jury adjourned Thursday, after a session of almost two weeks, during which time 19 indictments were returned, covering various offenses, and warrants are in the hands of the sheriff's department for the arrest of the persons indicted.

A great deal of time was spent upon a careful investigation of the murder of Pauline Amsel, which occurred in the fall of 1914. No bill was returned in the case. The jury's report covering this feature of its investigation is as follows:

"We have examined especially the matter with reference to the murder of Pauline Amsel in the city of Durant during the month of November, 1914, which was especially submitted to us by the Court. We have inquired into all the details, rumors and reports of all kinds, and permitted persons to express their personal opinions and advance their theories about how the matter occurred. We had all the eye-witnesses living in Durant, the officers in charge at the time, the detective who worked on the case, the person who had charge of the hounds making the investigation immediately thereafter, the father and the mother of the girl, before us, and examined each one carefully. And after so doing, we return no true bill of indictment."

WALLACE W. GATES FOR ASSESSOR

WALLACE W. GATES

W. W. Gates authorizes this paper to announce his candidacy for assessor of Bryan County. Mr. Gates made the race for this office in 1914, and was defeated by the small majority of 89 votes. Since the election he has been connected with the Durant Nursery Company, who can speak for his qualifications, honesty, and service. Mr. Gates will resign his position before the election, and hopes to be able to see every voter personally.

Regarding himself, Mr. Gates says: "I was born near San Antonio, Texas, where I remained and attended public schools until a fair-sized boy, when I decided to go to the cattle ranch of Jos. F. Green & Co., on the Rio Grande River of West Texas. I worked for them several years, and while I was only a boy of thirteen years, I filled the place of a man, and when I left I was being paid $25 a month, which was considered the top price for a cowboy at that time. But this kind of a life did not appeal to me for a life job, so I decided to come to Oklahoma where my father and two sisters were, and whom I had not seen for five years, my mother having died when I was five years of age. I landed at Albany in 1908, and realizing my need of an education I started to school September 1, 1908. I worked my way through, and after my graduation I entered the profession of teaching, and taught school for awhile in the county. I then entered a Denison business college and graduated in bookkeeping, coming to Durant to make my home. I have been in office work since. My advantages were not the best, as I had to work my way through, but I believe that 'where there is a will there is a way.'"

"If I am elected to the office of tax assessor I will work at it as hard as an individual at his own business. I will be the 'head man', and if there is more work than I can do I will see to it that my assistant does the work right. I promise the voters that I will make the rendition of all taxes as equal as possible, and show no special favors."

Mr. Gates is a man of family, having married the daughter of E. M. Albright, of Bokchito, one of the county's most prominent citizens. He is well acquainted with land values in Bryan County, and knows livestock. He has the best interests of his home county at heart. He is a Christian gentleman of exemplary habits; a self-made man, and his qualifications are unquestioned. The office of tax assessor is one of the most important offices in the county, and you are requested to investigate Mr. Gates' qualifications before casting your vote.

SAYS TRUSTY SYSTEM SHOULD BE ABOLISHED

Grand Jury Recommends New Jail, But Says that the Present Prison is Clean and Sanitary — Doesn't Endorse Half-Liberty.

The grand jury, which adjourned Thursday evening, recommends that the time-honored system of permitting trusted prisoners to have a sort of half-way liberty by allowing them to run loose in the jail yard and go about town on errands, be abolished, and that all prisoners of all classes be strictly confined to the cell or cells of the jail at all times. While the report of the grand jury does not intimate that the body believed the trusted prisoners to be in any measure responsible for the aiding of other prisoners to escape, the recommendation leads court house officials to surmise that such was the jury's belief.

The jury made a careful examination of all parts of the jail, and reported that they found the prison in a clean and sanitary condition, but recommend that a new jail be provided at the earliest possible date.

HATCHETT ASSIGNED TO McALESTER
